

Internship requirements of MPH schools in Missouri

University of Missouri	Saint Louis University	Washington University	Missouri State University	Lindenwood University
Internships 1st and 2nd years	Internships between 1st and 2nd years	Internships between 1st and 2nd years	Internships after the 2nd year	Capstone experience during last 2 semesters
360 internship hours	320 internship hours	360 internship hours	400 internship hours or 200 hours plus a research project for current public health professionals
Preceptors are not required to be MPH graduates	Preceptors are not required to be MPH graduates	Preceptors are not required to be MPH graduates	Preceptors are not required to be MPH graduates
		Preceptors are encouraged to have epidemiology backgrounds	Frequent self and preceptor-led assessments
		Site visits are required to certify internship sites		